HOGS (220)

Auctioneer – Jim Large

A very strong trade for the well fleshed hogs particularly the heavyweights which topped at £103 for 58kg Texels from Mr. R.A. Coad of Cubert purchased by Messrs. K. & D. McFadden Butchers of St. Just. Top average for handyweights was 221p/kg for 43kg Charollais crosses from Messrs. D.J. & S.P. Hopper of Sweetshouse purchased by Robert Trevarthen. In contrast the poorly finished hogs, of which there were several this week, were in far more limited demand and this pulled down the overall averages. There is substantial variation in prices for the poorly finished hogs compared with those which are well fleshed. With the general lack of grass it is important that producers start feeding to maximise value.
