TO ALL “FARM ASSURED” LAMB PRODUCERS

West Country PGI Farm Declaration (LAMB)

Our buyers are becoming increasingly interested in PGI. As a Farm Assured producer, we hope you will be eligible to sell prime lambs under the West Country PGI trademark, so long as you meet the PGI requirements listed below, primarily that the lambs have been born and reared in the West Country.

There is a PGI Declaration Form which we need you to complete and send in each time you sell prime lambs at the Market. Without this declaration, which must include your Farm Assurance sticker, we will not be able to sell your lambs as West Country PGI.

PGI Lamb Requirements

- Born, reared and finished within the West Country Region comprising of the six counties of Cornwall, Devon, Dorset, Gloucestershire, Somerset and Wiltshire.
- Are no more than 12 months of age.
- During their lifetime have been fed on minimum 70% forage based diet and have received a suitable period of grazing, typically 2 months. (Supplements may have been fed at weaning and finishing stage and ingredients and purchasing records have been maintained on the animal feeding log).

PGI Forms will be included with your cheque each week and are downloadable from our website or available to complete at the Office on Market day. If you have any questions or queries on this please speak to Bob Mosley on 01872 272722.
